N. M. MAGUERE "SHORT SPEECHES."

writer in Chamber's Journal, on A writer in Chamber's Journal, on "short speeches and our correspondence," gives a budget of ancedotes, some of which are fresh, and others, well, otherwise. Here are the best of them: "An American judge once intervened in an odd way to prevent a waste of words. He was sitting in chambers, and seeing, from the piles of papers in the lawyers hands the first case was likely to be hardly contested, he asked, "said is the amount in question?" "two dellars," said the plaintiff's connsel. "I'll pay it," said the judge, handing over the money; "call the next case." He had not the patience of taciturn Sir William Grant, who after listening for a couple of days to the arguments of He had not the patience of tacturn Sir william Grant, who after listening for a couple of days to the arguments of connect as to the construction of an act, quietly observed, when they had done, "the act is repealed." Lord Aberdeen, the premier of the coalition ministry, was remarkable for the little use he made of his tongue. When, by way of reconciling him to accompany her on a searrip, the Queen smillingly observer: "I believe, may lord, you are not often sea sick?" "Always, madam," was the brief but significant reply. "But," said her majesty, "not very sea sich?" "Yery, madam," said the uncompromising minister. An inquisitive French bishop once caught a Tarter in the Duke de Roquelaire. The latter, passing in haste through Lyons, was halled by the bishop with "hi! hi!" The duke stopped. "Where have you come frem?" inquired the prelate. "Paris," said the duke. "What is there fresh in Parish?" the prelate. "Paris," said the duke. "What is there fresh in Parish?" "Green peas," "But what were the people saying when you left?" "Vespers." "Goodness, man," broke out the questioner, who are you? What are you called?" "Ignorant people call me hi! hi! Gentlemen term me the Duke de Roquelaire. Drive on possilion!" Taileyrand acknowledged a pathetic letter from a lady friend, announcing her widowhood, with a note of two words: "Helis, madam!" And, when the easily consoled dame words not the present the said of the present the present the said of the s consoled dame wrote not very long after-ward soliciting his influence on behalf of an officer she was about to marry, he merely replied: "Ho! ho! madam!"

The word "quiz," to make fun of, or poke fun at a person, was the schage of a theatrical manager in Dablin, who, at a drinking party with his friends, when the conversation turned upon the subject of words, offered to bet the wine that he could then and there coin a word which would be in the mouths of all Dablin next day. The bet being taken the party dispersed, the manager called up his call-boys and runners, gave them pieces of chalk and ordered them to run all over the city, chaffing the word "quiz" on every door, shutter and fence they came to. This was done, and as a matter of course the new word was in every body's mouth the next day. Had this manager been an American of today he would have been one of our great and successful-advertisers.

NEWSPAPER mistakes are scaroely unsroidable. Every issue of many journals involves the placing of 150,000 types. Out of that number some will be wrongly placed, in spite of the best care. A Pittsburgh paper made a rather ridicusious blunder lately and yet there was only one letter out of place. The editor and "Fitter and Gas Fitters and "The Legislature masted (massac)". said "The Legislature pasted (passed) the bill over the Governor's head."

Tux suicide of Captain M. A. Knight, of Bouham, Texas, is accounted for in the language made use of to his wife when he fired the fatal shot: "Kate, you shall no longer live the wife of a drubk-ard."

Is Pennsylvania the average wealth to the population is $1081 to each inhabitant. It is said that a good many have not got their share, but are anxious to have it paid over.

THE man who would shine in conver-sation must possess sriginal ideas and strong sympathies—be able both to communicate and to listen.

Smoking tobacco if it stings the tongue is too dry, if it produces nansea is too strong, and if it produces a headache it is impure.

Jose Billings says that if a man has got $80,000 at interest, and owns the house he lives in, it ani't much trouble to be a philosopher.

There is a man in Comdin who keeps a list of all the banks in the country, so as to be able to say that he keeps a bank account.

A haly calls the little memorands the butcher souls in with the meas "pencil-ings by the weigh."
